Speckles the tarbosaurus 2012 is an album by Fairport Convention. This was the first album Fairport Convention made with bassist Ashley Hutchings. It was a session for BBC Radio One that had produced an album for the band as a whole. After the recording of the Fairport Convention album Sands of Time, the band used the band's own money to finance the recording of this album. Many songs had been released before this album came out, but this was the first album to feature the band's first live lineup since the 1970s. Since it features songs by all the band members, it has been regarded as the Fairport Convention's true debut album. It was recorded at London's Strawberry Studios between 5–11 May 1972. Before recording Speckles, producer Mickie Most assembled a band that included Pete Brown, Andy Roberts, bassist/pianist Ashley Hutchings and drummer John McCusker, replacing the original Fairport lineup consisting of Davy Graham, Richard Thompson, Simon Nicol, Jackie Sheridan and drummer Mick Pegg. The album was released on 16 December 1972. This was the first of two John McCusker albums to be released under this name. It was released with a re-recorded version of "Speckled Pink" as a single. The album was released with the following tracks: "Jenny's in the Greenhouse", "The Girl with the Big Teeth", "The Wild Rover" and "Speckled Pink". The last two songs were recorded by Fairport Convention in the same session as the album. "The Girl with the Big Teeth" was recorded on 16 May 1972 at Westside Recording Studio in Los Angeles, and "The Wild Rover" was recorded at the same session. These were the first recordings by Fairport Convention since the sessions in 1971 that produced the Rock and Roll Circus album and the Live at Leeds album. "Speckled Pink" was originally written and released in 1971 by Welsh folk-rock band Llwydfardd in the song "Cambriau Calon Llechwedd" (sometimes abbreviated as "Cambriau" and "Cambrian"), and has been covered by a number of other bands. A live version was released on their Live at the Eisteddfod album in 1991. This song is featured on the Fairport 82157476af
